

THE PRESIDENT'S INTERFAITH AND COMMUNITY SERVICE
CAMPUS CHALLENGE

Gallaudet University
Washington, DC

September 22-23, 2016

PRESIDENT'S
INTERFAITH AND COMMUNITY SERVICE
CAMPUS CHALLENGE

Sixth Annual President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge National Gathering

Thursday, September 22, 2016

11:00am-1:00pm: Registration

*Gallaudet University
Elstad Auditorium
800 Florida Ave NE
Washington, DC 20002*

Thursday September 22

12:55-2:30pm

Where Do We Go From Here: Creating Safe & Supportive Educational Environments in a Global Society

- Welcome from Gallaudet University
 - President Roberta Cordano
- Armchair Conversation with Tina Tchen, Chief of Staff, Office of the First Lady, White House
 - Moderated by Carrie Hessler-Radelet, Director, Peace Corps
- Comments
 - Carrie Hessler-Radelet, Director, Peace Corps
- Dance by Gallaudet Dance Company
- Update from the White House
 - Melissa Rogers, Executive Director, White House Office of Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships
 - Zaki Albarziniji, Associate Director of Public Engagement, White House
 - Chanan Weissman, Associate Director of Public Engagement, White House
- Comments
 - Martha Kanter, Director, College Promise
- Remarks
 - Tom Banchoff, Vice President for Global Engagement, Director of the Berkley Center, Georgetown University
- Closing Remarks
 - Anna Leach, Center for Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships, U.S. Department of Education

2:45-4:00pm -- Breakout Session I

Help Build a Digital Library in the Cloud

Room: Chapel Hall

- Description: In response to the worldwide lack of access to books, the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) has piloted events on several U.S. college campuses to highlight the challenges of global illiteracy. Join a hands-on session, in which participants will create a children's book with free, open-source software and learn about available resources to engage their own communities in global education issues.
- Facilitator: Lauren Mims, U.S. Department of Education
 - Christie Vilsack United States Agency for International Development
 - Amie Harris United States Agency for International Development
 - Chayva Lehrman United States Agency for International Development
 - Becky Miller U.S. Department of Education
 - Brendan Byers United States Agency for International Development
 - Itzel Fairlie United States Agency for International Development
 - Josh Joshua United States Agency for International Development

Faith, Sexuality and Human Rights: Safe Spaces for LGBTIQ People of Faith

Room: Merrill Learning Center LCB 111

- Description: How and to what extent can faith communities create safe spaces for LGBTIQ people in their traditions without injustice, prejudice and exclusion? This panel will consist of religious leaders and educators from around the world.
- Facilitator: Ken Bedell, formerly of the U.S. Department of Education
 - Jide Macaulay House of Rainbow, United Kingdom, Nigeria
 - Pdraig O'Tuama Corrymeela, Ireland
 - Joas Adiprasetya Jakarta Theological Seminary, Indonesia
 - Ayanda Nxusani University of Cape Town, South Africa

Creating Inclusive Programs: Secular Student Engagement in Interfaith

Room: Merrill Learning Center LCB 112

- Description: While interfaith programming can create inclusive platforms for diverse groups to come together, many interfaith programs struggle to recruit secular students. This workshop will explore data related to secular student engagement and representation in interfaith, while offering concrete ideas and suggestions on how to find, include, and engage them on your campus. International scholars and faith leaders will share their experience building stronger links between religious and secular peacebuilders in their work.
- Facilitator: Nicole Wood, U.S. Department of Homeland Security
 - Nick Stancato Secular Student Alliance
 - Manuela Kalsky Vrije Universiteit, Amsterdam, Netherlands
 - Obiora Ike Globethics, Switzerland
 - Geoffrey Baines University of Edinburgh, Scotland
 - Ertugrul Gokcekuyu Islamic University of Rotterdam, Netherlands
 - Soledad Catoggio University of Buenos Aires, Argentina

Finding Common Ground: Interfaith Encounters with Land, Language, and Literature

Room: Living & Learning Residence Hall 6 MPR 101

- Description: This session will present an approach to interfaith engagement through a panel featuring faculty and students from Nyack College and scholars from both Jewish and Evangelical institutions. Panelists will discuss different perspectives on the New Testament and corresponding Jewish literature, archaeological discoveries, and the cultural backgrounds that connect Judaism and Christian origins.
- Facilitator: Acacia Salatti, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

- | | |
|--------------------|--------------------|
| ○ R. Steven Notley | Nyack College |
| ○ David Emanuel | Nyack College |
| ○ Jeff Garcia | Nyack College |
| ○ Juan Arias | Nyack College |
| ○ Steven Fine | Yeshiva University |

Know Your Neighbor

Room: Foster Auditorium

- Description: The Know Your Neighbor Coalition was launched at the White House last December to focus on fostering a nationwide dialogue on the country's religious diversity and developing a general awareness of major faith traditions. This coalition believes that such a dialogue is desperately needed to reduce religious tensions and maximize the strength of our American heritage. The panel will highlight the religious diversity in the United States and provide the audience with the basic tenants of their faith and give the audience takeaways on people can know their neighbors and how knowing one's neighbor can help solve their community's challenges.
- Facilitator: Melissa Rogers, White House Office of Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships

○ Maha Elgenaidi	Islamic Networks Group
○ Nick Little	Center for Inquiry
○ Mary Ellen Giess	Interfaith Youth Core
○ Steve Martin	National Council of Churches
○ Jay Kansara	Hindu American Foundation

Global Arts and Cultural Education as a Tool for Interfaith Peacebuilding

Room: Elstad Auditorium

- Description: The arts are an important tool for creating understanding and focusing on our shared humanity. These speakers lead creative endeavors in their communities, bringing unlikely groups together to create lasting change. Several arts and advocacy projects will be showcased. They introduce the concept of fostering social engagement and volunteerism by connecting public art platforms to social justice and peace initiatives.
- Facilitator: C. Eduardo Vargas, U.S. Agency for International Development

○ Anja Fahlenkamp	Faiths in Tune, Germany
○ Majeda Omar	Royal Institute for Inter-Faith Studies, Jordan
○ Siti Syamsiyatun	Universitas Gadjah Mada, Indonesia
○ Dr. Esmilda Abreu	Montclair State University,
○ Kirsten Richert	NeuroLink Institute
○ Orville Morales	Congressman Pascrell, U.S. House of Representatives

Let Girls Learn and The President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll

Room: Hall Memorial Building HMB-n203

- Description: Learn about two Administration priorities around community service - The President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll and Let Girls Learn. Get all your questions answered about how to apply for the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll. Let Girls Learn will present on how institutions of higher education can work together to open the doors of education for girls around the world.
- Facilitator: Lauren Mamane, Peace Corps

○ Rob Bisi, Corporation for National and Community Service
○ Stacey Ferguson, Peace Corps

Understanding How Cultural Values Shape Behavior

Room: Hall Memorial Building HMB-W220

- Description: Religion and culture go hand in hand, but often discussions of cultural values are too vague to be instructive in understanding why people behave the way they do. During this highly interactive session, learn concepts and vocabulary that help assess how culture shapes our understanding of time, identity, relationships, and trust.
- Facilitator: Phoebe Milliken, Hartford Seminary

The Professional Applicability of Interfaith Studies

Room: Sorenson Language and Communication Center SLCC Atrium

- Description: The nascent field of interfaith studies has the unique ability to prepare the college students of today to be the interfaith leaders of tomorrow, regardless of what career path they choose. This session will address the empirical research that demonstrates a need for this type of education, offer personal reflections on how a background in interfaith studies has helped to build careers, and discuss how to implement curricular revisions to address this opportunity.
- Facilitator: Noah Silverman, Interfaith Youth Core
 - Jacqueline Bussie
Concordia College, Moorhead
 - Medora Frei
Concordia College, Moorhead
 - Rachel Crippen
Concordia College, Moorhead
 - Usra Ghazi
U.S. State Department Office of Religion and Global Affairs
 - Mark Hanshaw
Texas Wesleyan University

Panel Discussion on What Faith-Related Stories are Newsworthy and Why

Room: Peikoff Alumni House Ole Jim Upper Level

- Description: The Religion Newswriters Association is the world's oldest and largest association for professional journalists writing about religion, faith, and values in major media outlets. This panel will bring together a select cadre of media figures who cover religion to share about their craft and take questions from the audience.
- Facilitator: Debra Mason, University of Missouri School of Journalism
 - Sarah Pulliam Bailey
The Washington Post
 - Jaweed Kaleem
The Los Angeles Times
 - Elizabeth Dias
TIME Magazine
 - Wajahat Ali
Affinis Labs

What Does Spirituality Mean to Millennials?

Room: Living & Learning Residence Hall 6

- Description: Come experience a session with Georgetown University based upon an interreligious dialogue that models how to use meditation, spiritual texts, and open conversation to determine what spirituality means to 'millennials.'
- Facilitator: Melody Fox Ahmed, Georgetown University
 - Tim Casey
Georgetown University
 - Lisa Bennett
Georgetown University
 - Piyusha Mittal
Georgetown University
 - Wakaha Sampei
Georgetown University

Curricular Development for Multifaith Education and Intercultural Citizenship

Room: I. King Jordan Student Academic Center SAC1011

- Description: Engaging difference and diversity is essential knowledge for our students. The university plays a formative role in teaching students how to value diversity in others with dignity and respect on campus and in the wider community. These courses and programs highlight successful pedagogical models for global higher education.
- Facilitator: Marcus Coleman, U.S. Department of Homeland Security
 - Anna Halafoff
Deakin University, Australia
 - Dicky Sofjan
Consortium for Religious Studies, Indonesia

Global Peacemakers: Interpersonal Communication for Community Change

Room: Living and Learning Residence Hall 6 Co-Lab

- Description: Being able to share your story and hear the stories of others is an effective tool for dissolving barriers among people of different faiths. Using a structured dialogue approach, participants from Hartford Seminary and from the audience will each get to talk about 1) an experience that shaped their understanding of their own faith and 2) experience that shaped their understanding of interfaith engagement.
- Facilitator: Heidi Hadsell & Phoebe Milliken, Hartford Seminary
 - o Jacky Manuputty Hartford Seminary, Indonesia
 - o Hans Abdiel Harmakaputra Hartford Seminary, Indonesia
 - o Allen Joseph Hartford Seminary, India
 - o Ayanda Nxusani Hartford Seminary, South Africa
 - o Jafar Morvarid Ferdowsi University of Mashhad, Iran

Interfaith Engagement with Community Partners

Room: Elstad Auditorium

- Description: This presentation will focus on identifying and engaging communities in collaboration with other departments and organizations through diverse activities such as interfaith mutual dialogues, service-learning and community engagement, and overcoming the challenges that arise from these projects.
- Facilitator: Marcus T. Coleman, Jr., U.S. Department of Homeland Security
 - o Erica Sigauke Cottey College
 - o Renee Hampton Cottey College
 - o Melissa Green The George Washington University
 - o Leah Sakdol The George Washington University
 - o Miriam Roochvarg North Carolina State University
 - o Zandra Wagoner University of La Verne
 - o Cynthia Ramirez University of La Verne
 - o Jesus Orellana University of La Verne
 - o Daisy Perez University of La Verne
 - o Joyce Ayala University of La Verne

No Place for Hate: Campuses Take the Lead

Room: I. King Jordan Student Academic Center SAC1011

- Description: Incidents of bias and hate involving religion have challenged campuses across the country. Come learn from colleagues about how campuses, interfaith groups, and community groups can respond to these confrontational actions, whether they happen on or off campus.
- Facilitator: Becca Hartman-Pickerill, Interfaith Youth Core
 - o Karin Firoza Northeastern University
 - o Todd Green Luther College
 - o Simran Jeet Singh Trinity University
 - o Hannah Joseph Benedictine University
 - o Abdul Damra Benedictine University
 - o Megan Benham Benedictine University
 - o Anneke Kat Interfaith Center of Greater Philadelphia

Sustaining Interfaith Cooperation on Religiously Affiliated Campuses

Room: Peikoff Alumni House Ole Jim Upper Level

- Description: This session will explore different routes that religiously affiliated institutions of higher education have taken to deepen their commitment to interfaith learning and cooperation in light of their unique identities

Friday, September 23, 2016

Friday, September 23

9:00-10:30am:

Where Do We Go From Here: What Works in Interfaith and the Academy

- Opening
 - Rev. Brenda Girton-Mitchell, Director, Center for Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships, U.S. Department of Education
- Welcome from the U.S. Department of Education
 - Secretary John King
- Reflection Remarks
 - Dalia Mogahed, the Director of Research at the Institute for Social Policy and Understanding
 - Eboo Patel, CEO and Founder Interfaith Youth Core
- Respondents:
 - Eboo Patel, CEO and Founder Interfaith Youth Core, Moderator
 - Varon Soni, Dean of Religious Life at University of Southern California
 - Chris Stedman, Executive Director of the Yale Humanist Community at Yale University
 - Andria Wisler, Executive Director, Center for Social Justice Research, Teaching, and Service, Georgetown University
 - Daniel Roth, Rabbi, Pardes Institute of Jewish Studies
- Questions and Answers
- Announcements
 - Anna Leach, Center for Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships, U.S. Department of Education

10:45am-12:00pm -- Breakout Session III

Preventing Violence/Extremism Among Youth: International Voices

Room: Foster Auditorium

- Description: Including youth as participants in the PVE/CVE conversation is essential. This session will present strategies for engaging youth in the current PVE/CVE dialogue utilizing religious perspectives as a viable response to violence. Participants will discuss successful responses and share resources.
- Facilitator: Oliver Wilcox, U.S. Department of State
 - Priyankar Upadhyaya Banaras Hindu University, India
 - Piseth Sek University of Cambodia, Cambodia
 - Dicky Sofjan Consortium for Religious Studies, Indonesia
 - Radia Bakkouch Co-Exister, France
 - Jacky Manuputty Peace Provocateurs, Indonesia
 - Aicha Haddou Centre for Research Training in Interfaith Relations, Morocco
 - Ali Tariq International Islamic University/Iqbal International Institute for Research and Dialogue, Pakistan

Engaging in Dialogue: Pitfalls, Frameworks, and Best Practices

Room: Peikoff Alumni House Ole Jim Upper Level

- Description: As the religious landscape continues to change and demographics shift, college campuses and university communities often find that conflict, rather than respect around issues of religion, are the norm. Many universities and organizations are now using dialogue to create safe places where students can learn from each other and explore difficult topics. Join us in a discussion about the challenges and rewards of dialogue, including different frameworks and best practices.
- Facilitator: Kristen Looney, Religious Freedom Center, The Newseum Institute
 - Sabrina Dent Religious Freedom Center, Newseum Institute
 - Alphonso Saville Emory University
 - Mary Ellen Giess Interfaith Youth Core

Exploring Faith That Does Justice: Alternative Breaks and Interfaith Dialogue

Room: Living & Learning Residence Hall 6 MPR 101

- Description: Alternative breaks continue to grow in popularity globally among college students across the United States. This breakout session presents an opportunity for interfaith dialogue by presenting narratives from and inviting conversation between two different alternative break programs from two different private universities.
- Facilitator: Jerry Lawson, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency
 - Zackary Abu-Akeel Georgetown University
 - Wakaha Sampei Georgetown University
 - Emily Muri Northeastern University
 - Mack Krell Northeastern University
 - Or Elmaliyah Northeastern University

Exploring Identity Intersection in Student Interfaith Engagement

Room: Merrill Learning Center LCB111

- Description: This session explores how religious, spiritual, and values-based identities intersect with other components of student identity (race, gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity, etc.) Presenters will look at best practices of implementing this intersectionality, lead a student identity panel, and explore various topics such as sex, marriage, and (dis)ability through an LGBT and interfaith lens.
- Facilitator: Timothy Kane, The George Washington University
 - Vineet Chander Princeton University
 - Raja Bhattar University of California, Los Angeles
 - Rachel McNeal University of North Florida
 - Murali Balaji Hindu American Foundation
 - Adeel Zeb Claremont University Consortium

Gender, Faith, and Leadership

Room: Living & Learning Residence Hall 6 Co-Lab

- Description: According to 2015 Pew research and 2007 Gallup Polls women improve peacebuilding outcomes and are more religious than men, and yet they are often excluded from formal leadership roles, even in interfaith work. These organizations and individuals will share examples of women's leadership from around the world, despite facing challenges from gender politics and theological doctrines that often exclude their voices.
- Facilitator: Eddie Martin, U.S. Department of Justice
 - Lian Gogali Institute Mosintuwu, Indonesia
 - Geoffrey Baines University of Edinburgh, Scotland
 - Asma Lamrabet Rabita de Mohammadia of Ulemas, Morocco
 - Ayanda Nxusani University of Cape Town, South Africa
 - Majeda Omar Royal Institute for Interfaith Studies, Jordan

Keep it Working: Sustaining Intercultural Practice and Programming

Room: Sorenson Language and Communication Center SLCC Atrium

- Description: It is essential to build relationships and networks across our global educational community to enhance student learning, create new programs and partnerships, and work collaboratively to respond to global crises. These institutions share a commitment to interfaith service work and fostering international relationships.
- Facilitator: Lauren Mims, U.S. Department of Education
 - o Grace Patterson World Faith
 - o Frank Fredericks World Faith
 - o Sanghoon Yoo The Faithful City at ASU
 - o Vivek Patwari The Faithful City at ASU
 - o Eunae Yoo The Faithful City at ASU
 - o Maeba Jonas Westminster College
 - o Mahogany Thomas Westminster College
 - o Fathimath Shafa Westminster College
 - o Rupa Kumari Westminster College
 - o Pierre “Kendy” Lamour Westminster College
 - o Lejla Dervisevic Westminster College

Fostering Institutional Partnerships for Interfaith Engagement (Between U.S. and International Institutions)

Room: Hall Memorial Building N203

- Description: It is essential to build relationships and networks across our global educational community to enhance student learning, create new programs and partnerships, and work collaboratively to respond to global crises. These institutions share a commitment to interfaith service work and fostering international relationships.
- Facilitator: Katherine E. Axelsen Braga, U.S. Department of Agriculture
 - o David Udayakumar Gurukul Lutheran Theological Seminary, India
 - o Enoe Texier Central University of Venezuela, Venezuela
 - o Paul Morris Victoria University, New Zealand
 - o Marjan Dema University of Prishtina, Kosovo
 - o Soledad Catoggio University of Buenos Aires, Argentina

Interfaith Space as Institutional Commitment

Room: Merrill Learning Center LCB112

- Description: This session explores institutional commitments to interfaith spaces at three universities: Ohio Wesleyan University, Duke University, and the University of the Virgin Islands. Presenters will discuss the residential spaces, learning communities, and sanctuary spaces created on these campuses.
- Facilitator: Ken Bedell, formerly of the U.S. Department of Education
 - o Minoka Gunsekera Duke University
 - o Farhan Khan Duke University
 - o Jeff Nelson Duke University
 - o Chenzira Davis Kahina University of the Virgin Islands
 - o Chase M. Smith Ohio Wesleyan University

International Media and Communications Strategies to Combat Intolerance

Room: I. King Jordan Student Academic Center SAC1011

- Description: Experts in international media will share how positive narratives of religion and religious/interfaith outreach work have the potential to challenge preconceived notions and educate, rather than promote mistrust and misunderstanding.
- Facilitator: Marcus Coleman, U.S. Department of Homeland Security
 - Chantal Suissa-Runne New We & Younite, Netherlands
 - Manuela Kalsky Vrije Universiteit, Netherlands
 - Khalid Saqi Mohammad VI University, Morocco
 - Alon Goshen-Gottstein Elijah Interfaith Institute, Israel
 - Zeenat Ali St. Xavier's College, India
 - Robert Chase Intersections International, USA

Welcoming the Stranger: Scriptural Reasoning on Immigration and Migration

Room: Elstad Auditorium

- Description: In this session participants will read texts from the Bible, Torah, and Quran on immigration and migration to explore what the various traditions say and differ on how to treat the stranger. Scriptural reasoning is not about seeking agreement, but rather increasing understanding and addressing misunderstanding about one another's traditions. We share our differences by exploring texts and their possible interpretations across faith boundaries. The result of this is often a much deeper understanding of your own and others' scriptures. Beyond this, many people develop strong bonds within and across faiths and end up working together to tackle some of the really divisive issues affecting their communities.
- Facilitators:
 - Sarah Snyder Archbishop of Canterbury Office of Reconciliation, UK
 - Ali Tariq International Islamic University, Pakistan

Building Interfaith Communities of Welcome: Engaging Immigrants, Refugees, and International Students on College Campuses

Room: Chapel Hall

- Description: Join us for a panel of universities and colleges invested in the cause of Syrian refugees and immigration issues. Students and staff from Fisk University, King's College, and Northeastern University will share methods and models of innovative programming, as well as different perspectives on building interfaith communities of welcome on their campuses.
- Facilitator: Rev. Brenda Girton-Mitchell, U.S. Department of Education Center for Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships
 - Jason Richard Curry Fisk University
 - Tina Watson Fisk University
 - David Popkin Fisk University
 - Shania Norvell Fisk University
 - Samuel Adeogun Fisk University
 - Janice A. Thompson King's College
 - Ida Dumbuya King's College
 - Jasmine Tabron King's College
 - Umar Alkhaldi King's College
 - Sara Ahmed King's College
 - Alexander Levering Kern Northeastern University
 - Karin Firoza Northeastern University
 - Sadiya Gurhan Northeastern University
 - Irem Girmen Northeastern University

Student Pre-Collegiate Experiences & Expectations

Room: Hall Memorial Building W220

- Description: Data shows that there is a significant gap between espousing interfaith values versus actually living them out among students in the class of 2019. Panelists will discuss strategies that have been working to close that gap, collectively envision strategies for greater engagement in interfaith work, and present cutting edge national trends.
- Facilitator: J.T. Snipes, Interfaith Youth Core
 - Lynne Meyer Illinois Institute of Technology
 - Bobby Wassel Saint Louis University
 - Joe Pritchett University of Delaware
 - Melaina Riley Oklahoma City University

12:00pm-1:15pm: Lunch Break (Additional Breakouts Provided)

Interreligious Engagement and Leadership in Theological Schools

Room: Living & Learning Residence Hall Co-Lab

- Description: Students from Claremont School of Theology and Emmanuel College of Victoria College from the University of Toronto will share their experiences and reflections on future directions in their respective institutions. Each of these Christian Theological Schools has an established a Muslim Studies program and formal training for spiritual care providers, counsellors, and religious leaders from various faith traditions in the same classroom. Each School has also expanded its interreligious programs or institutional connections to include the Jewish or Buddhist faith traditions. The different historical and geographic contexts and institutional settings provide two successful and dynamic models of systemic and sustainable interfaith engagement, service, and leadership.
- Facilitator: Mark Toulouse, Emmanuel College of Victoria University in the University of Toronto
 - Lea Appleton Claremont School of Theology
 - Nevin Reda University of Toronto
 - Jason Mitchell Claremont School of Theology
 - Omar Patel University of Toronto
 - Eric Bridges Claremont School of Theology
 - Lisa Boyle Wilvert University of Toronto

The Art of Interfaith and the Interfaith of Art

Room: Sorenson Language and Communication Center Atrium

- Description: Grab your lunch and come learn from filmmaker, author, lyricist and composer of INTERFAITH: The Musical, Ruth Broyd Sharone. Using her songs and lyrics, simultaneously serious and funny, she has created an entertaining curriculum to guide participants to deeper levels of empathy for those they do not know or appreciate...as yet! There is an art to celebrating our rich cultural and religious diversity. Art can also provide unique opportunities for cross-cultural exploration and discovery, promoting the kind of experiences that allow us to learn about "the other" and to increase our capacity for empathy as we endeavor to build relationships of trust and mutual respect.
- Facilitator: Ruth Broyd Sharone, Interfaith: The Musical

Luncheon with the United Methodist Office of College Ministry

Room: Living & Learning Residence Hall MPR 101

- Description: If you work at a United Methodist-related college or university, participate in a United Methodist-related campus ministry, or are United Methodist, the Office of College Ministry at the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry invite you to share in a lunch together. Please contact our office to RSVP and order your boxed lunch, smis-ner@gbhem.org. We look forward to sharing in the meal with you and in discussing the best ways that our office might support you in your interfaith work on your campus.

Friday, September 23

1:30-3:00pm

Where Do We Go From Here: Welcoming Communities

- Opening
 - Melissa Rogers, Executive Director, White House Office of Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships
- Celebration of the Honor Roll
 - Wendy Spencer, CEO, Corporation for National and Community Service
- Keynote
 - Rev. John McCullough, Church World Service
- Every Campus A Refuge
 - Danna Van Brandt, Office of Population, Refugees and Migration, U.S. Department of State, Moderator
 - Guilford College
 - Diya Abdo, Founder and Director, Every Campus A Refuge
 - Rev. Dr. Jennie S. Knight, Co-Director of Every Campus a Refuge
 - Northeastern University
 - Alexander Levering Kern, Executive Director, Center for Spirituality, Dialogue, and Service
 - Grand Valley State University
 - Katie Gordon, Program Manager, Kaufman Interfaith Institute
 - Mohammed Badran, VU Amsterdam University, Syrian Volunteers in the Netherlands
- Question and Answer
- Concluding Remarks
 - Rev. Brenda Girton-Mitchell, Director, Center for Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships, U.S. Department of Education

PRESIDENT'S
INTERFAITH AND COMMUNITY SERVICE
CAMPUS CHALLENGE