

Senior Obama Administration Officials to Participate in My Brother's Keeper Fulton County Task Force Event

Contact: Press Office, (202) 401-1576, press@ed.gov

Event Date 1 : May 9, 2016 - 3:00pm

James Cole Jr., general counsel, delegated the duties of deputy secretary at the U.S. Department of Education, Karol Mason, assistant attorney general for the Office of Justice Programs at the U.S. Department of Justice; and Michael D. Smith, special assistant to the President and senior director of cabinet affairs for My Brother's Keeper at the White House, will participate in a panel discussion and town hall meeting on the continued progress of President Obama's My Brother's Keeper Initiative (MBK) in Atlanta, Georgia on Monday, May 9.

The President launched MBK to address persistent opportunity gaps faced by young people, including boys and young men of color, to ensure that all young people can reach their full potential. In response to the President's call to action, nearly 250 communities in all 50 states, 29 Tribal Nations, Washington, D.C., and Puerto Rico have accepted the President's My Brother's Keeper Community Challenge. Cole, Mason and Smith will be joining youth and members of the My Brother's Keeper Fulton County Task Force for the event.

Event 1

James Cole Jr., general counsel, delegated the duties of deputy secretary, U.S. Department of Education

Karol Mason, assistant attorney general for the Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice

Who : Michael D. Smith, special assistant to the President and senior director of cabinet affairs for My Brother's Keeper, White House

John Eaves, chairman, Fulton County Board of Commissioners

Joan Garner, commissioner, Fulton County Board of Commissioners

Robert Lewis Jr., co-facilitator, My Brother's Keeper Fulton County Task Force

Derrick Pope, co-facilitator, My Brother's Keeper Fulton County Task Force

What : Panel discussion and Town Hall meeting on My Brother's Keeper Initiative in Fulton County and nationally.

When : 3 p.m. ET, Monday, May 9, 2016

Charles R. Drew Charter School

Where : 301 E Lake Blvd SE

Atlanta, Georgia

Tags: Media Advisories