About Me!

" For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give hope and a future ." Jeremiah 29: 11. Danielle Hawkins is a senior broadcast journalism major, business management minor at Hampton University. Danielle holds a cumulative grade point average of 3.5. Her campus involvement includes being a proud member of the Gamma Theta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated, Hampton University Renaissance Scholar, former member of the Greer Dawson Wilson Student Leadership Training Program, staff writer for the Hampton Script and technical crew member for WHOV News. Danielle has interned with MSNBC's The Last Word with Lawrence O'Donnell, the Office of Video Services at the United States Department of State, and the Scripps Howard School of Journalism and Communications Atmospheric Sciences Program.

What are your plans after graduation?

After graduation Danielle plans to attain a Masters Degree in Business Administration while holding a full time position with a news company. Danielle desires to become a national news reporter, author, and entrepreneur. Lastly, Danielle has a burning love for HBCU's and wants to one day return to Hampton as a professor and mentor the students.
