PROGRAM DETAILS

Scholars will be recognized by the WHIHBCU for one academic school year. During the course of that year, WHIHBCU staff will provide Scholars' with outreach and engagement opportunities.

Scholars are encouraged to build relationships within their institutions, with regional and community-based organizations, as well as, government and private sector entities. Selected Scholars will learn and share proven and promising stakeholder engagement practices that support new opportunities for all young people.

Additionally, Scholars will have opportunities to participate in regional events and web chats that support a wide range of topics, including, but not limited to, the spirit of engagement and entrepreneurship, innovation and career development. All Scholars will be invited to attend and participate in the Annual HBCU Week National Conference in Washington, D.C.
