How to Work With USAID for Minority Serving Institutions
Spring 2024 Webinar Series

1. USAID 101   LEVEL 1

Wednesday, March 6, 2024  | 9 - 10:30 am PT • 12 - 1:30 pm ET

This initial webinar will introduce participants to USAID's global mission, structure, and programming, including types of funding available for Minority Serving Institutions.

2. Pre-Award Planning and Development   LEVEL 1

Wednesday, March 13, 2024  | 9 - 10:30 am PT • 12 - 1:30 pm ET

This webinar will cover considerations before receiving an award from USAID, including strategic planning, marketing your institution, identifying opportunities, and understanding and responding to solicitations.

3. Post-Award Management   LEVEL 1

Wednesday, March 20, 2024  | 9 - 10:30 am PT • 12 - 1:30 pm ET

This webinar will outline the technical and operational steps in managing an award including project startup, building a relationship with USAID, and program management.

4. Managing Program Operations   LEVEL II

Wednesday, March 27, 2024  | 9 - 10:30 am PT • 12 - 1:30 pm ET

This webinar will outline operational considerations when implementing a USAID award, including compliance, regulations, recruiting, and financial management.

5. Monitoring, Evaluation, and Learning   LEVEL II

Wednesday, April 3, 2024  | 9 - 10:30 am PT • 12 - 1:30 pm ET

This final webinar will cover how to monitor the results of your programming, evaluate its effectiveness, and learn from what you find using USAID's Monitoring, Evaluation, and Learning (MEL) and Collaborating, Learning, and Adapting (CLA) methodologies.

To register for these webinars, visit https://lu.ma/usaid-msi-webinars.